Interstate Adds 21st Century Insurance to Its List of Exclusive Relationships

Uniondale, NY: (May 18, 2009): In response to growing demand from consumers, Interstate National Dealer Services announces it has teamed with 21st Century Insurance; adding 21st Century Insurance to an ever-growing list of organizations that offer the popular automobile service contracts and extended warranty plans administered by Interstate, one of the country's leading service contract providers.

"We're very proud to announce this relationship with 21st Century Insurance," said Interstate's CEO, Shaun Fetherston. "I think nearly everyone knows that 21st Century Insurance is the industry gold standard when it comes to personal auto insurance... this gives us a chance to diversify our customer base and broaden our distribution channels with a company that shares the same commitment to excellence."

"For us, this is an exciting opportunity to stay at the forefront of the auto insurance industry," said Irene Grugan, Director, at 21st Century Insurance of the new relationship. "With Interstate's industry-leading products on our side, we can provide a value-added product to our personal auto insurance customers that competitors may find hard to match. We can't wait to see what the future holds."
